In Dream Class, you will learn the 15 keys that make the greatest difference in the classroom.

Written from the unique perspective that everything you do affects classroom management, each key will help you create the class you've always wanted: your dream class.

They will free you to love your job, build effortless and influential relationships with your students, and enable you to become a happier, calmer, and more confident teacher.

You will learn:

- Simple strategies that make classroom management a lot easier.
- Exactly (step-by-step) how to handle difficult students.
- How to create a classroom your students will love coming to every day.
- How to build behavior-changing rapport and influence with even the most difficult students.
- How to get your students to treat each other with respect and kindness.
- How to praise in a way that inspires, uplifts, and motivates.
- How to build maturity and independence.
- How you can know your students will behave instead of just hoping they will.
- How to become a teacher that fellow teachers, parents, and students respect and admire.
- How to love your class, and have them love you right back.
- And much more . . .
