Stay Positive No Matter What!: Being a Positive Person in a Painful World Larry Hill

The world can sometimes be a painful place.

But no matter what you face, it is possible to come through it with a victorious outlook on anything you might encounter in the future. You can live a positive and productive life despite the pain and problems we encounter from day to day. Why?

Because God actively works for our good in all situations of life.

In Stay Positive No Matter What! Dr. Larry Hill provides a unique resource to assist you in being positive every day, regardless of your circumstances. Using the Bible to show how God enables humans to be positive, this powerful book shows that sometimes you just have to live as if you are positive until you can truly become so.

Presenting seven concepts that include maintaining a sense of gratitude, associating with uplifting people, and knowing you are a special creation of God, Hill utilizes the supreme example of Jesus Christ to help you move to a place where the positive controls all of your thoughts and actions.

This book will challenge you to look carefully at your life and make honest responses to the tough issues you face every day.
