The Most Beautiful Tree: A Christmas Parable for All Ages Melody Carlson

Thaddeus the pine tree has proclaimed himself the finest tree in the forest and is lavishly decorated in the town square for Christmas. Only when a barefoot little boy named Leo approaches does he begin to understand the secret to true beauty. Melody Carlson weaves a poetic tale with an ageless message of inspiration both adults and children will appreciate year after year. Colorful, vivid illustrations by Donna Race transform Thaddeus from a prideful pine to a humble, giving symbol of the season.
