Draw with Joan Miro Ana Salvador

Joan Miro (1893 - 1983) was a Catalan/Spanish painter and sculptor who became one of the greatest artists of the 20th century whose surrealist masterpieces are represented in many of the great art galleries of the world. This fascinating and innovative book invites readers to learn from the master. Step by step, line by line it shows the reader how to recreate some of Miró's most famous work. Through copying and then improvising for themselves, it will help them to see and appreciate Miró's drawings and inspire readers to try out many more of their own. Accompanying text features an introduction to Miró's art and some of his best-known sayings.
