His Marriage Trap Sheena Morrish

Nikolai and Gabriella married for convenience after the death of her parents revealed a will that bound them together. They have spent their entire marriage living like strangers.

When Gabriella discovers that Nikolai is having an affair she grows sick of living in ignorance and decides that it is time for her to divorce him.

Only Nikolai has no intention of letting his wife divorce him. In his eyes marriage is for life and he honours his vows.

Now it is a battle of wills between them as to who will win and what that might mean for their failing relationship.
