Riding With Amanda Robin Ellsworth

Amanda Wolfe is a teenager and she has to learn to accept that God's Will means she will not be a bride and a mother. She received a diagnosis of cancer. She is trying to fit an entire life into her fourteen years of life. Her father bought her a sports car and her parents allow her to take her car places because they want her to know what it is like to be an adult. Amanda has to deal with classmates and others in her small town who think cancer is contagious or deserved. She also has to deal with her father being the town drunk. Johnny her friend has to deal with the death of his father and God not answering his prayers with a yes. He has to accept God being God and not a deity that Johnny can design to his specifications. The title to this book comes from Amanda and Johnny going places in Amanda's Porsche 356.
