Molly Keegan: When I was younger, when life was simpler, I met Davron. Wildly sexy, devastatingly handsome, with just enough of a hint of danger about him to drive any woman wild, he had me swooning on the first day. He was everything I wanted, till he walked out of my life without so much of a backward glance, leaving our son Josh to grow for fifteen years wondering about his father. Now he is back, asking for a second chance to make things right, and even though he still makes me weak at the knees, I would be careful not to make the same mistake again.

Davron: Letting go of Molly was the hardest thing I had ever done in my life, but now I hope to make things right. I had never stopped loving her, but the question remained: did I still have the right to the three magic words after all I had done? I have to make her believe that I am here to stay; that I can be trusted. And I must start by telling her the truth: I am a lion, a bear and a dog shifter, born and raised in a different world, trained to kill enemies and suspect friends, and there is a likely possibility Josh our son may be as dangerous as I am-maybe more.
