People Are Different Lovey

"Cute, fun and for some reason it made me cry in the end. My 5-year old loved it, and I was so moved by the message. Truly the world will be a better place when all children learn to accept that people are different."

This fully illustrated book for children of all ages and especially 3-8. The Doctor Suess-like poem may be fun and silly, but the message is strong -- acceptance is the path to a better world. Illustrated by children, People Are Different promotes a world view of tolerance. To accept and embrace those different from oneself is perhaps one of the most valuable social skills of all. The human family is stronger for its diversity.
