Ernest Hemingway in Key West: A Guide (Famous Footsteps Series) Marsha Bellavance-Johnson, Lee Bellavance

Having visited Hemingways home a couple of months ago I was drawn to this small volume on the writer's time in Key West. The tiny book is as advertised; however, there are many books available to give much more complete accounts of the 30's in Key West and how they connected to Hemingway. The book is as advertised and simply covers some of the history and background with nice drawings and photos.
