Light and Dust: Images and Stories from the Wilds of East Africa Federico Veronesi

This book is a reflection on the subjects and places that made the deepest impression on the author during his years spent in Eastern Africa. His interest and skill in capturing the emotions of wild animals, their resilience and beauty make it unique. The author has sought out the most dramatic weather conditions for his photographs—morning mists, dust storms and heavy rains, or rays of light shining through the clouds—and followed the animals on endless journeys along ancient trails, across dry lakes or raging rivers, documenting their never-ending fight for survival.

He had his camera with him all the time, always hoping for the perfect blend of elements to come together in one image.
