Light and Shadows - Steven Free A home fearing a knock at any moment from Child Services sees however that what arrives at their front door is not entirely human. In a pack rat home, a vintage watch is found attracting unwanted attention from officials who sought its discovery. Turning the gear of destiny in the form of a vintage watch, James Norbury transcends into a world of light and shadows, altering the public and setting loose a ripple effect that will endanger his entire city. Choosing the fate of his loved-ones over his own health. Risking it all for the hope to restore his family.
