There Is Only One Place On Earth: 126 Tribes with different Religions united by one language and share common grounds of peace, freedom of mind, love and unity Zaytun Omary-Sijaona

There is one place on earth that: Might be a root of all of us, a land where more than 126 tribes are united by one Language. Where peace and love are focal despite of different religions, a home of a great thinker who lead his people justly for 25 years and handed the state voluntarily, surrounded by Ocean and Lakes, tree climbing Lions, millions of annual animal migration, a place of a biggest intact crater in the world, where the land is rich with world's most expensive gemstone and of course a harbour of the world's largest game reserve and nearly 24 national parks. Due to her legacy of peace and humanity, Tanzania has been a home of millions of African refugees from the early 1970s. Those refugees were from South Africa,Zimbabwe, Mozambique,Namibia, Rwanda, Burundi, Zaire(DRC), Kenya and Somalia. Although the Late Id Amin Dada(a former Ugandan president) wanted to dominate Africa, it is Tanzania which ousted Id Amin in 1979, and made the Ugandan people free from ruthless regime.
