Great Jokes 3: A Really Funny Collection of Truly Good Jokes Jim Cartwright

So, three guys walk into a bar... and since no-one is more of an expert on guys drinking to excess in bars than author Jim Cartwright, we asked him what happens next. As he explains it, the guys get some beers, sit round a table, and start talking utter nonsense to each other. It starts with some sport-related posturing about how great the game was, and quickly devolves into swapping increasingly drunken jokes... Which is where we can help you.

This book is crammed full of over half a thousand jokes of all sorts, from cute stories about kiddies and little fluffy animals to filthy gags about... Ah, but that would be telling. Let's just say that Great Jokes holds nothing sacred, and just about anything you can imagine becomes the butt of a joke sooner or later. Even ancient historical figures like Eumenidies and George Bush.

We have tried to keep dark stuff out of the book, but it's one of those areas without firm definitions, and who's to say our view of 'dark' agrees with yours? So if you're easily offended, or of a sensitive disposition, please don't risk it. We want to make people laugh, not make them feel bad.

Still here? Great! Let's go have a good laugh together.

If you like Great Jokes, you'll also love Over the Hill by George Dorn, a wonderful collection of wit and wisdom relating to aging – and remember to pick up the other volumes in the amazing Great Jokes series.
