She's the Boss is my pick for best novel of 2012! ~ Chick Lit Central, Cindy Roesel

I laughed and expanded my mind while reading this book. ~ Booksessed

Hilarious and a must read. ~ Literary Chanteuse

She's the Boss is fabulous because it has a little bit of everything: insane amounts of humor, romance, good and bad. Refreshingly honest and real. A fantastically fun read that I highly recommend! ~ The Caffeinated Diva

The Devil Wears Prada meets The Office. Twenty-something Karsynn is now a boss, but she's not so much The Devil Wears Prada as she is The Angel Wears Payless. With a brighter career, things should be going better for her, right? Wrong. There's now a new director at the office, Carter Lockwood, and he's brought his reputation for wreaking havoc amongst the ladies. Karsynn prides herself on being the only one impervious to Carter's good looks. In fact, she takes great pleasure in blowing on the embers of Carter's hostility.

Karsynn thinks Carter is arrogant and obnoxious. Carter believes Karsynn is an ignorant, sassy spitfire. Once they start working closely together, they discover first impressions can be deceptive. Karsynn may be winning the battle against Carter, but will she lose the war? And more importantly, will she lose her heart?
