THE HIGHLY ANTICIPATED FOURTH INSTALLMENT IS FINALLY HERE!!!

Relocating to Atlanta, Georgia for a fresh start and better opportunities, Cameron believes she's left the drama and nonsense behind in her hometown—but she soon discovers just how wrong she was. Trouble seems to follow Cameron where ever she goes, yet older and a bit wiser, will she be able to make better decisions not only for herself but for her family as well?

Jude Patterson couldn't be any happier to have the love of his life by his side, but providing for his family has proved to be easier said than done. After serving a brief stint in prison, he isn't as financially stable as he should be upon his release. As a father and soon-to-be husband he realizes that he has to do what he has to do to make ends meet—and that involves getting mixed up with some less than reputable people. Taking part of a shady business seems to be the only alternative for Jude but it may also come with a price as well as putting his family in jeopardy.

New and old characters return, adding more to Cameron's load of troubles. Will she and Jude be able to make it out okay or will they ultimately be consumed by it all?
