The Champions can't seem to get a break. With U.S. victory at hand in the Cold War, enter the Scale, a deadly adversary determined to perpetuate the global arms race, nuclear war be damned.

Reginald Perry, shapeshifter and survivor of the last generation of Champions, knows the Scale's ruthlessness too well. Ordered to assassinate a Champion in exchange for his life, he is desperate to reunite with his old team. But his mortality is failing. And watching him is the Scale's leader — warder of his medicine and a clairvoyant whose blood-red eyes see all.

Janis's own clairvoyance shows a teammate slain. A possible future, she tells herself. One that can be altered. On the backdrop of escalating global instability and a Champions Program fracturing from within, she and Scott must race to hunt down the Scale before becoming targets themselves.

But will their supernatural efforts be enough?
