Facing Apathy: A Move Towards Action Scott Fagaly

Foreword by Rick Bezet, Lead Pastor of New Life Church, Arkansas, and author of Be Real, Because Fake Is Exhausting

Facing Apathy: A Move Towards Action is a conversation that explores the apathetic and comfortable lifestyles that many in the Body of Christ are experiencing in western culture. The voices in this book will challenge and encourage you to live a life in full pursuit of active faith, grace, love, and mercy. Uniquely formatted, each contributor has written a complete thought as it relates to revitalizing the Church towards a life of action. We long to see the Church become the passionate extension of the heart of God once again, and are committed to standing with you as we all face apathy in our hearts, in our lives, and in our world. Facing apathy exists to bring positive change to not only those who read it, but also those that may never read it. We have partnered with The A21 Campaign to make sure that happens. Co-founded by one of the book's contributors, Christine Caine, The A21 Campaign exists to abolish injustice in the 21st century, focusing their efforts on human trafficking and modern day slavery. We at Facing Apathy believe that this is one of the most tragic social injustices that exist in the world. That's why we have committed to support this fight with every cent of profit from this book.
