Poems for Women: A Ballad of Thanks Kirby Thibeault

To Women: A Ballad of Thanks presents an inspirational and poetic articulation of thanks for their infinite gifts to humanity. At the same time, women have been responsible for the essence of creation, or, have been bestowed with the divine ability to bring life into this world. Consequently, through their ability to love and be compassionate, women have demonstrated thousands of years worth of the beautiful traits that are contained in the very definition of “divinity.” To be sure, and to my mind, divinity is believed to represent a very holy or god like state. In turn, by being in or representative of a god like state women have continued to provide human kind with all of the necessary conditions for its survival such as love, compassion, acceptance, understanding, wisdom, harmony, encouragement, tolerance and many more traits that are crucial for our physical and spiritual sustenance. Thus, it seems to me that it is very important that women are thanked for all of the good that they do and the beauty that they represent. Accordingly, I offer this ballad of thanks to women for the perfection that they represent.
