A rogue wave on the Great Lakes brings together two unlikely people who are each searching for more from life.

Even after her husband's suicide, Corinne Woodward remains faithful to him while single-handedly manning the lighthouse on the lake. But the lonely young widow longs to be loved again and decides to join her deceased spouse to prove she is his love for all eternity. Her plan goes awry the night she must rescue the sole survivor of a shipwreck. A war between fidelity and attraction rages inside her, with her heart as the prize.

Stephen Thompson is living the perfect life, or so he thinks. He captains a Great Lakes ship, romancing a different girl in every port, but can never quite bring himself to stay the night with any one of them. A rogue wave capsizes his ship, taking his entire crew, and leaving him lost at sea in more ways than one. His saving angel comes in the guise of the widow who keeps him from drowning. Her fidelity to her late husband is touching, and reveals to him what is missing in his life. He's finally found the one woman who can make him stay the night, every night. All he has to do is battle a ghost for her love.
