Howard B. Wigglebottom is a good-natured bunny, but he sure does squirm around in his seat. He never sits still or listens. He doesn't listen during story time or lunchtime or recess or art class. He doesn't listen to his teachers, his friends, or even his mother. What happens when Howard doesn't listen? He ends up in all kinds of trouble. After getting his ears stuck in the fan (ouch), slipping on a banana peel (oops), and getting a time out (yuck), Howard decides to really, really listen. When he does, Howard discovers that he has fewer problems and much more fun! The friendly pastel illustrations and Howard's goofy antics prompt giggles and serve as a gentle reminder about the importance of paying attention.
