In 2002 Perry Stone released the 80-page book entitled "MEAL THAT HEALS." Since that time, there has been a large amount of new insight and historical research, as well as many questions from our readers. This new expanded book explains in clear detail the importance of receiving daily Communion for intimacy with Christ and for your healing! The majority of the content of this book was not in the first book! This book explains: 15 most common questions The difference between the Catholic Mass and Protestant Communion Transubstantiation, consubstantiation, and the Communion as a memorial How Christ's suffering effect a three-fold atonement including physical healing Amazing secrets that occurred in Gethsemane Details about the manna in the wilderness and its parallel to Communion Quotes from scholars and early historians regarding breaking bread from house to house The Didache and the banquet of the Messiah This faith building book explains one of the greatest subjects in the believer's life and I believe it will set you on the road to intimacy, strength, and healing!
